

Daniel Louisdor

Micro Loan Committee

Daniel Louisdor is currently the Utility Business Coordinator at the City of North Miami for over six (6) years. He oversees the division's daily office revenue and maintains expenses within budget. He answers customers' concerns about their invoices and financial hardship; monitors account payable/receivables and he assists with various technical matters that could affect the City's billing process. Prior to his current position at the City, Mr. Louisdor was a Business Advisor at the United Way where he partnered with business owners in analyzing their entity performance in various categories; suggested solutions to operations functionality problems; conducted outreach to local businesses through Constant Contact and other social media outlets and he also applied target marketing techniques to acquire firms for consulting services. Mr. Louisdor also had several years of experience in the retail industry where he analyzed business performances; coached sales team and he encouraged his team to follow project guidelines. He is a promotor of excellence in the customer service area.

Mr. Louisdor is currently enrolled in the MBA Real Estate program at Florida International University (FIU) and he obtained is Bachelor in Business Administration at Florida A& M University.

In addition, Mr. Louisdor is the recipient of several certifications from various educational institutions for Supervisory & Leadership; Bookkeeping Proficiency; Economic Seminars; Grant Writing and lead economic seminars.

Mr. Louisdor teaches Bible study at his local church and he enjoys playing recreational basketball.